6.4. Annual Family BBQ Tuesday June 5

Some of the grad committee members are helping to solicit for the BBQ. Sandra has shared the request for sponsorship letters. IGA will give us a preferred price on buns and hot dogs. Maxi has donated a $100 gift card. A call out for volunteers and an ad will be included in the next newsletter.

6.5. Kindergarten Orientation May 11

As in the last couple of years, a H&S pkg will be distributed to all the new parents. Sandra has created the pkg, and will speak at the orientation sessions. Last year parents were asked to share their email address if they wished to be on the H&S mailing list - this gave us a connection to the new parents from the springtime. A rise in K involvement was noticed last year, due to requesting the email addresses at the previous orientation.

- If you are a member and are interested to join the Executive Team please contact H&S to submit your nomination. Submissions will be accepted up until and including the AGM.

THE CROCUS

Harriet Beecher Stowe

Beneath the sunny autumn sky,
With gold leaves dropping round,
We sought, my little friend and I,
The consecrated ground,
Where, calm beneath the holy cross,
O'ershadowed by sweet skies,
Sleeps tranquilly that youthful form,
Those blue unclouded eyes.

Around the soft, green swelling mound
We scooped the earth away,
And buried deep the crocus-bulbs
Against a coming day.
"These roots are dry, and brown, and sere;
Why plant them here?" he said,
"To leave them, all the winter long,
So desolate and dead."

"Dear child, within each sere dead form
There sleeps a living flower,
And angel-like it shall arise
In spring's returning hour."
Ah, deeper down cold, dark, and chill
We buried our heart's flower,
But angel-like shall he arise
In spring's immortal hour.

In blue and yellow from its grave
Springs up the crocus fair,
And God shall raise those bright blue eyes,
Those sunny waves of hair.
Not for a fading summer's morn,
Not for a fleeting hour,
But for an endless age of bliss,
Shall rise our heart's dear flower
